

Washington, DC Tours & Sites

The nation's capital is a vibrant and exciting city with many enjoyable attractions for out-of-town visitors. Congresswoman Matsui is pleased to provide constituents with congressional tour reservations for many of these sites in the Washington, DC area. All reservations are provided to residents of California's Fifth Congressional District on a first-come, first-served basis, and many tours are filled up to six months in advance. Therefore, constituents are encouraged to request reservations as early as possible.

Congresswoman Matsui can reserve constituent tours for the following attractions (click on any of the links to view additional information regarding tours of each venue):

- The United States Capitol

- The White House

- The Library of Congress

- The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts

- The Supreme Court

- The Bureau of Engraving and Printing

- The State Department

- The Pentagon

- The National Archives

- The National Cathedral

Please review the above links as many of the venues have their own booking procedures and requirements. My office will collect your request and submit these requests to each individual venue. Once we have received confirmation from that venue my office will send you a detailed itinerary outlining the information that you have requested. This information will be sent to you (via email) approximately one week before your trip, but is subject to the response time of each individual venue.

Venues such as the White House, State Department, and Pentagon will require the submission of additional security information. My office will collect that information from you for submission at a later date if it is needed.

In order to begin the process of obtaining Congressional tour reservations to these destinations, please provide the necessary information by filling in the following form (asterisks indicate required fields).

Thank you, and I hope you have a wonderful visit to our nation's capital!
